Who is man, what is he, from where did he come, and what is his destiny? Groping over the endless paths of those who have gone before, we seek to understand ourselves through learning from lectures, from experience, from books.

TRAVERSE to learn the intricacies of chemical reactions . . . the complexity of a tree . . . the possible home of man . . . the expression of one's thoughts and emotions . . .

BOOK ONE

Administration . . . Faculty . . . Graduate Students . . . Classes

BOOK TWO

Student Council . . . RHODODENDRON
. . . Appalachian . . . Clubs

BOOK THREE

Football . . . Soccer . . . Basketball . . .
Track . . . Wrestling . . . Baseball . . .
Golf . . . Tennis . . . Swimming . . .
Cheerleaders . . . Majorettes

BOOK FOUR

Who's Who . . . Superlatives . . . Plays and Programs . . . Popular Programs
. . . Homecoming . . . Christmas Court
. . . King of Hearts . . . May Court . . .
Graduation

THE eager anticipation of the parade . . .
the spontaneous group discussions . . . the untold satisfactions to be found in serving with the Peace Corps . . . the joy of sharing nature's beauty . . .

THE traditional snake dance . . . the dorm Christmas parties . . . the partaking of an atmosphere conducive to laughter, gossip, or debates—through this association with others we learn better to understand ourselves.

THE intensity of a basketball game . . . the pleasure of winning . . . the sorrow of losing . . . the apprehensive enthusiasm of a football game—through this competition we find and understand our thoughts and emotions.

MR. ELLIS G. BOATMAN

DEDICATION

To a man who takes a genuine and personal interest in his students and who is always ready to give his time, energy, loyalty, and friendship to all who call upon him, we the 1965 RHODODENDRON staff proudly dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Ellis G. Boatman.

BOOK TWO

STUDENT COUNCIL

Under the leadership of its president, Tom Turner, the Student Council assumed and carried out many new and worthwhile projects. Included in these projects were a reorganization of the Student Government Association By-Laws; formation of the Inter-Class Officers Council; an Honor System that exemplifies Appalachian students' integrity, character, and academic honesty; and the conducting of all campus-wide elections. All of this work was done in addition to the regular Student Council activities.

The Council has worked long and hard this year and the students of Appalachian owe them a special vote of thanks, for they have set an excellent example of industry and responsibility for us.

KAY LOWERY
Business Manager

The Appalachian, a weekly newspaper which has no faculty or administrative censorship, is published by a staff comprised of students who have at least a "C" average and who like writing. An editor and a business manager are chosen in a campus-wide election each year during the latter weeks of winter quarter.

Three delegates represented the Appalachian at the National Associate Collegiate Press Convention held in Chicago, Illinois.

In addition to membership in the Associated Collegiate, Inter-Collegiate, and Carolina Collegiate press associations, the A.S.T.C. paper maintains an exchange system with newspapers of other colleges and universities all over the United States and abroad.

FOOTBALL 1 9 6 5

Jim Duncan wound up his last season with the Appalachian Mountaineer Gridders in the fall of 1964. He pushed the Mounties to a 6-3 record which came all too close to taking conference honors. Elon's Fighting Christians, for the second year in a row, crushed Appalachian's conference hopes this year in the Mounties' own stadium by a 28-7 tally. Lenoir Rhyne's College Bears followed suit the following week and pushed across seven points in the final minutes to beat the Boone invaders 14-7. Highlights of the season were an early season romp of Western's Catamounts, 27-10, and a homecoming 35-14 showing over the punchless Indians of Catawba.

Larry Lawing's hardnosed running from the fullback spot and good defense from Larry Hand and company brightened a hard season.

Coach Eric De Groat's soccer squad established a name for itself in the 1964 season this year by managing 4 wins, two coming from strong Southern Conference schools. Bouncing back from a 0-9 disgrace at the hands of N. C. State, the Mountaineer soccer men upset a rough-and-tumble Davidson squad by a 3-2 score. Later in the year both Lynchburg and Furman fell to the Apps by the same tally. A 6-1 romp over Brevard College followed the Furman win.

The Big Five.

Coach Bob Light produced the "surprise team" of the Carolinas Conference as the 1964-65 Light Brigade turned in a 15-8 season to finish in a tie for third in the league. The Mountaineer roundballers were not even picked to finish in the first division in pre-season polls. Tony Gray sparked the ball club's defense as did Gerry Francis and Paul Reynolds. Duncan carried the scoring load but was helped by outside shooting from Wilcox and inside scoring by Hailey and Gray.

The Brigade sported an undefeated season on the home court, but found the going rougher on the road.

bourg, Jerry Hart, Jim Richardson, Robert McLaughlin. Fourth row: Wayne Duncan, Larry Hand, Sid Acker, Britt Brittain, Terry Harbin.

Appalachian's track squad also entered the ranks of the Appalachian "surprise teams," winding up an average season with a second place finish in the league. Coach DeGroat did wonders with the boys and shaped them into a solid winning unit. The Apps finished second to Catawba in the championship deciding meet by only $2\frac{1}{2}$ points. Joe Lukaszewski, the Harbin twins, and Larry Hand sparked the Mountaineer thinclads.

Coach Doug Crater's wrestlers stiffened up their schedule but managed a strong winning season with 8 wins and only 2 losses. Highlight of the season was the near shutout of N. C. State's grapplers coached by a former Appalachian great, Al Crawford. Captain Ed Winterstein helped the grappling squad draw the best crowds wrestling has enjoyed in several seasons. Winterstein survived the season with only two losses, both coming in tremendous matches.

Better things are in store for next season with the entire starting line-up returning for the 1965-66 season.

Frank Meyer's Mountaineer baseballers managed only two wins out of a twelve game slate, proving once again that baseball is not a mountain sport. The only two wins were wrested from High Point College. Meyer's pitching staff suffered from poor support fielding wise, as the winning margin was often decided by errors in the out-field resulting in free extra bases. Mountaineer batters also failed to come through with needed punch.

The Goldsboro Twins.

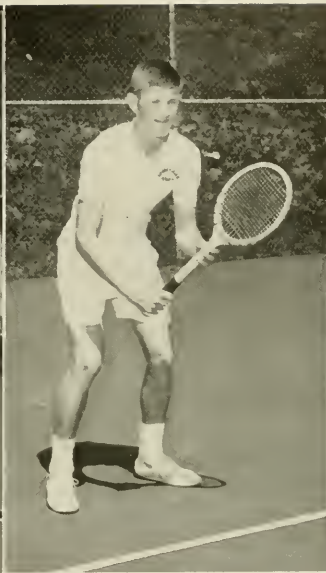

The ASTC racket squad was the only team other than the Mountaineer Golfers to fight for national honors as they dominated the Carolinas Conference and the NAA District 26 competition, winning the right of competition in the national tourney in Kansas City. Norman Chambers and company came near to a national championship, but had to settle for a third in the nation finish. Chambers finished his second consecutive season undefeated in regular competition. Consistent play from Bob Barbera, new-comer Bill Case, and J. W. Isenhour enabled the netters to boast uncontested supremacy in the Carolinas league.

What's going on?

Appalachian's swim squad started out the '65 season with fresh spirit fostered by coaching from Peter Fogarassy, Hungarian graduate student and an Olympic Gold Medal winner; however, the squad lacked experience to produce a win this season. The season was excellent experience for the years to come and the squad now is developing a nucleus of swimmers with two and three years of experience who should materialize some wins next season.

The Watauga Savings and Loan Association has had a part in the growth of this area since 1921. We have noted with pride the growth and progress of Appalachian State Teachers College.

Quality education is much more important than it was a few years ago. The administration and faculty along with the students have proven that Appalachian is the type of educational institution which is needed in this changing world of today.

The people of Watauga Savings and Loan Association also feel very strongly about quality. We require quality in all the homes we finance. We offer the best rates available on your savings. Put these together and you have a sound financial institution.
